

Agenda
College of Liberal Arts
Graduate Instruction Committee
March 23, 2009
3:00 pm, Coke 206A

I. New Course Proposal

- HIST 646

II. Discussion Items

- Draft information for the Provost on recruitment, mentoring, & placement activities in departments
- Minimum additional work for the graduate version of stacked courses (requested by GC)
- Departmental practices on use of GATs

III. Announcements and Reminders

- Regent's money needs to be offered by April 1, 2009
- College of Liberal Arts nominees won two of seven Phil Gramm Fellowships awarded. Congratulations to Tyler Johnson of Political Science and Jennifer Mueller of Sociology.
- Kunze prize nominations are due the College of Liberal Arts by April 6 (officially by March 31, 2009, but I am willing to take them later). One nominee from the College is due to OGS by April 13, 2009.

NOTE:

Immediately following this meeting the GIC subcommittee to select spring dissertation award winners will meet. Members of the subcommittee are:

Alex McIntosh - SOCI
Eduardo Urbina - HISP
Gary Varner – PHIL
Cynthia Werner – ANTH
Guy Whitten -- POLS